Three Jurors Cured
Of Cholera Morbus with one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some soured meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one 25 cent bottle cured the three of us." For sale by all druggists.

In an address at a soldiers' reunion at Hamilton, Ind., Gov. Hanly vigorously defended his action in removing Auditor Sherrick, as a commongambler who had lost thousands of the State's money at the gaming table.

Cause of Insomnia.
Indigestion nearly always disturbs the sleep more or less and is often the cause of insomnia. Many cases have been permanently cured by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by all druggists.

IN MEMORIAM.

Again we are reminded that "in the midst of life we are in death." On last Monday week the death angel visited a happy home and took from it a dear wife and mother. It was such a shock, she having been sick only a little over a week. It seems hard for one bent with the infirmities of age to be taken from home and loved ones, but when it comes to a mother with a family of little ones, it seems most unbearable. But we shall know some day why it was done. Hattie was a good woman, always ready to lend a helping hand when she could. The writer knew her from childhood. Besides a devoted husband she leaves six children, the youngest only four months old, a heart-broken father and mother, two sisters and two brothers to mourn her incomparable loss. Oh, how hard for mother to be taken from the little ones, but "granda" will care for them as best she can, but no one can take the place of mother. May the dear Lord heal the bruised and wounded hearts that have been made by this awful blow; and may they be able to say, "Thy will be done." Everything that kind hearts and loving hands could do was done; but nothing we can do will conquer the work of the Master. Deceased was a member of the Baptist church and was truly a good wife and mother. She was formerly Miss Hattie Collier and had lived at Stanford since her marriage, until about three months ago, when they moved to Somerset and were living there at the time of her death.

Though our hearts are sad and lonely
And from sorrow have no rest,
We will see her in her beauty
We will know that God knew best.

Dear Hattie thou art sweetly resting,
Cold may be thy earthly tomb,
But the angels sweetly whisper
Come and live with us at home.

Hattie we hope again to meet thee
When this weary life is o'er,
And in heaven with joy to greet thee
We will meet to part no more.

AN AFFECTIONATE FRIEND.

Attacked by a Mob

and beaten, in a labor riot, until covered with sores, a Chicago street car conductor applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and was soon sound and well. "I use it in my family," writes G. J. Welch, of Tekonsha, Mich., "and find it perfect." Simply great for cuts and burns. Only 25c at G. L. Penny's drug store, Stanford, and Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.
